TWELFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Most merciful God, We are all your family on earth and how lovely it is when family live together in unity. You know us and love us and call us to go in faith to serve others according to your plan. Enrich our faith and give us courage to follow you wherever you lead us so that all your family will know you and live your way, bringing unity and peace to your amazing world. We pray this in the name of Jesus who came to save and gave the promise of forgiveness and eternal life. Amen.

Healing Service Prayer Team – Volunteers. In September we are launching a monthly healing service at St Mary's. We are looking for people to support this ministry in prayer. There are two ways you might do this:

- Pray with those who come seeking healing (as part of a team)
- Pray for the ministry before, during and after the service. You can do this either at home or at St Mary's during the healing service.

Rev. Mandy will provide training. If you're interested or want to know more, contact Rev. Mandy – 0460 872 944 or mandylarkin08@gmail.com.

Upcoming Study: in late September we begin our "What's in My Bible?" study. Watch this space!
