Let us trust in the Lord truly, for the Lord will never fail us. We will never be left to fend for ourselves even when life deals us a serious blow. We pray to you, our God and Saviour, for the faith to believe in your way, the hope to follow it through and the love which carries us on. Amen.

This week we give thanks for and pray for the Christian witness and mission of our five Diocesan Anglican Schools: Lindisfarne Anglican Grammar School Terranora, Emmanuel Anglican College Ballina, Clarence Valley Anglican School Grafton, Bishop Druitt College Coffs Harbour and St Columba Anglican School Port Macquarie; for their 5 800 students, their families and staff.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN LOCAL HISTORY?

In a few years we will celebrate 150 years of Anglican presence in Ballina. I'd like to gather as much history as possible, including Parish history, history of Ballina, and especially the story of the Bundjalung people before and after the arrival of white settlers in this area. If you're interested in helping to gather this information, please contact me.

Thanks, Rev. Cathy.
